FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

KELLY JUDAY NAMED PRESIDENT OF THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF SAFETY COUNCILS' BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Midland, MI (May 2, 2018) – Great Lakes Safety Training Center is proud to announce Kelly Juday, Executive Director, has been appointed President on the Board of Directors for the American Association of Safety Councils (AASC.) “I’m humbled to be recognized by my peers to lead this fantastic association,” said Kelly Juday. “Great Lakes Safety Training Center was one of the original founding members of AASC back in 2001 and I am honored to help this organization assist other safety councils across the United States and Canada.”

The American Association of Safety Councils is an international association of safety professionals. Their mission is to save lives and reduce workplace injuries through education, communication and the promotion of safer workplaces. The international association keeps members up to date with industry news, including regulation changes by state. It is also a forum by which best practices in the many areas of occupational health and safety is established and publicized. Kelly will serve a two-year term in this position.

Kelly started at Great Lakes Safety in 2007 and was named Executive Director in 2013. She has a Bachelor’s degree in Marketing from Michigan State University.

Great Lakes Safety Training Center is a 501(c)(3) organization that provides workplace and occupational safety training and helps promote and create safe communities through partnerships with businesses and local high schools. Please join us as we support our mission of “Preparing People to Live and Work Safely Every Day”. For more information, visit www.glstc.org
